

TWELFTH SUNDAY
ORDINARY TIME

Zechariah 12:10-11, 13:1
Psalm 63
Galatians 3:26-29
Luke 9:1

KEY VERSE: "But who do you say that I am?" (v.20).

READING: Jesus had been praying in solitude, and then he asked his disciples who the people believed him to be. They answered that some thought he was John the Baptist, while others believed him to be Elijah, and still others thought he was one of the ancient prophets that had arisen. Jesus then asked what they personally believed about him. Peter spoke for the Twelve declaring that Jesus was the "Messiah of God" (v 20, in Greek christos, the equivalent of the Hebrew term mashiach meaning "anointed one"). The title "Messiah" had grown in popularity, and among certain groups, it was applied to a descendant of the royal family of David who would come to restore the kingdom of Israel (Acts 1:6). Jesus told his followers not to reveal his true identity as many would expect a political leader who would set Israel free from foreign oppression. Jesus then taught them about his coming passion and death, and the necessity of the cross for all who would follow him.

READING: How can I help others understand who Jesus is?

PRAYING: Lord Jesus, you are my Savior, my healer, my liberator, my refuge, my rock, my fortress, my peace and my hope.

It is better to suffer for the cause of Christ than for the cause of Christ to suffer. Be the right hand of Jesus by extending it to others and inviting others to the avenue of salvation, His Church.

Opening Hymn: "Faith of our Fathers"

Refrain: Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers, living still,
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword;
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whenever we hear that glorious Word! (refrain)

Faith of our fathers, we will strive
To win all nations unto Thee;
And through the truth that comes from God,
We all shall then be truly free. (refrain)

Faith of our fathers, we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife;
And preach Thee, too, as love knows how
By kindly words and virtuous life. (refrain)

Closing Hymn: "God of our Fathers"

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast,
Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide and Stay,
Thy Word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

A Father's Day Prayer

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice. Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Let us praise those fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. Let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives. Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect. Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.
