P: The brightness of the sun is one kind, the brightness of the moon another, and the brightness of the stars another. For star differs from star in brightness.

P: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Opening Hymn: “O Come, Divine Messiah”

PNCC Hymnal 28, verses 1 & 2

Refrain:

Sweet Savior haste; Come, come to earth, Dispel the night and show Thy face, and bid us hail the dawn of grace. O come, divine Messiah! The world in silence waits the day.
When hope shall sing its triumph, and sadness flee away.

O come, divine Messiah!
The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph,
And sadness flee away. R:

O Thou, whom nations sigh for,
Whom priests and prophets long foretold,
Wilt break the captive fetters;
Redeem the long-lost fold. R:

Closing Hymn: “Come Thou Almighty King”

PNCC Hymnal 230 verses 1, 2, & 4

Come Thou Almighty King, help us Thy name to sing
Help us to praise, Father all glorious, o’er all victorious
Come and reign over us, ancient of days.

Come now Incarnate Son, Your life in us begun
Our prayer attend, come and your people bless
And give your Word success, strengthen your righteousness,
Savior and friend.

Come Holy Comforter, Your sacred witness bear
In this glad hour, Your grace to us impart, Now rule in every heart,
Never from us depart, Spirit of Pow’r!

To the great One in Three, Eternal praises be,
Hence ever more, His sov’ reign majesty
May we in glory see, and to eternity, love and adore.

33rd Sunday Ordinary Time

First Reading: Daniel 12: 1-3

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16

Second Reading: Hebrews 10: 11-14, 18

Gospel: Mark 13: 24-32

Key Phrase: "He will gather his chosen from the four winds."

Mark 13: 27

Readings: The prophet Daniel speaks of that future time when time and history will give way to eternity, when just people will be raised up to everlasting life. The Letter to the Hebrews asserts that the sacrifice of Jesus has sanctified humankind once for all. Mark tells us how Jesus describes the final consummation of history speaking of violent upheavals in nature. The future, radical transformation of all life and time is symbolized by catastrophic changes in the heavens and on earth.

Reflection: As always at this time of year, we begin to contemplate the end of the world - a theme that carries us over next Sunday's feast (Christ the King) and so into Advent. Such a contemplation is not gloomy or morbid: throughout the ages (and especially in the early days) Christians have been utterly positive about the coming end of all things, because we know what will happen, and in fact we earnestly desire it to come: the phrase that gives this away is in the Gospel: "Then he will send his angels to gather his chosen from the four winds." This gathering of God's children together will be a truly wonderful event, when we will all be completely enfolded in that love of God that we talk so much about.

Praying: Let us pray that our union through the Eucharist may be the sign of that day when Christ will gather His pilgrim Church into His kingdom.
