

OUR ORGANIST - WENDY BLOTZER

Wendy Blotzer is the director of the Annunciation Bell Choir and organist at Holy Family PNCC church. After graduating from Duquesne University with a BS Music Education degree, she began her degree teaching music in public schools. She retired from school teaching after 40 years. She also holds an Elementary Degree, Drivers Education degree, and minor in Sacred Music.

Wendy currently serves on the National PNCC Music Commission and was one of the people that helped the making of the PNCC Hymnal, as well as other musical publications from the PNCC church. She served as Vice President of the United National Choirs, and President of the Holy Family Choirs. Previously Wendy was Director of Music at Saint Eugene Catholic Church and was the choir director for the Liberty Borough Presbyterian Church.

She has 4 children and 4 grandchildren.

