Sacrament of the Word of God

The PNCC recognizes the same sacraments as the Roman Catholic Church and Eastern Catholic Churches, the PNCC has added the notable sacrament of the Word of God. Because no matter how we regard the sacraments, whether from the view of Thomas Aquinas, or from a simpler interpretation, more compatible with Christ's real meaning, the sacrament is the external manifestation of Man's union with God, then listening to the word of God is a sacrament in every respect. Jesus assured us of this when replying to the blessings of the woman, He said, "Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it." (Luke 11: 28) At another time addressing Himself to a multitude of His followers, He said, "Verily I say unto you, He that hears my word and believes in Him that sent me, has everlasting life and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." (John 5: 24) An on another occasion, "He that is of God, hears God's words." (John 8: 47) St Paul gives us further instruction about the word of God. "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish is foolishness; but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God." (1 Cor. 1: 18). From this Sacrament we learn to know the Divine Will of God. Also, read Matthew. 28: 19; Luke 8: 11; 1 Peter 1: 23 and Matthew 4: 4
