

PENTECOST SUNDAY – THE BIRTHDAY OF THE CHURCH

Next Sunday we celebrate The Pentecost. That's the beginning and Birthday of the Church, Birthday of all of us, because we are the Church.

Liturgical color of Pentecost is red. Therefore, if you can, let us all be dressed in red on that day for the Mass. Church was born with the sending of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and Blessed Mother. Let us celebrate as a community of the believers, the CHURCH. Red dress, red tie, red top, red accessories.

KITCHEN FLOOR RESTORED TO PRISTINE LOOK

Thank you, Frank and Ted, for working hard on Friday and Saturday on our kitchen floor. It looks fresh and nice. Good job!

sympathetically about the doctrinal similarities and differences to our own beliefs among Christian believers, to shed prejudices and suspicion about each other, and to learn to love each person we encounter and to cooperate with the members of all denominations in all possible ways.

We need to go beyond friendship and cooperation: The unity for which we pray is not merely a “comfortable” notion of friendliness and cooperation. It requires also our willingness to dispense with competition between us. We need to open ourselves to each other, to offer gifts to and receive gifts from one another, so that we may truly enter into our shared new life in Christ, which is the only true victory.

We need to pray fervently in our own denominations and in interdenominational prayer gatherings that God may show us the right way to proceed in achieving true and lasting Christian unity without sacrificing the basic Christian principles and teachings. We should offer also our personal prayers that the unity for which Our Lord prayed may be brought nearer.

FIRST READING

ACTS 1:15-17, 20A, 20C-26

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers — there was a group of about one hundred and twenty persons in the one place —. He said, “My brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus. He was numbered among us and was allotted a share in this ministry. “For it is written in the Book of Psalms: May another take his office. “Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Judas called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.

Then they prayed, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place.”

Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.

Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,

so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,

so far has he put our transgressions from us.

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

The LORD has established his throne in heaven,
and his kingdom rules over all.

Bless the LORD, all you his angels,
you mighty in strength, who do his bidding.

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

SECOND READING

1 JN 4:11-16

A reading from the First Letter of Saint John.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another.

No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us of his Spirit.

Moreover, we have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as savior of the world. Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him.

The Word of the Lord.

ALLELUIA

CF. JN 14:18

I will not leave you orphans, says the Lord.

I will come back to you, and your hearts will rejoice.

GOSPEL

JN 17:11B-19

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark.

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: “Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction,
in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

But now I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely. I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

CLOSING HYMN

Hail, Blessed Mary – PNCC #268

FAITH SHARING

Christian love resulting in the unity of all Christian denominations is the main theme of today’s Scripture lessons.

The first reading, taken from Acts, tells us how the eleven apostles as one unit, relying on the power of God, elected Matthias to replace Judas. This incorporation was an action done by the whole community under the chairmanship of Peter. They chose Matthias by lot, and the outcome was taken to be the will of the Holy Spirit.

The second reading, taken from John’s first epistle to the Church, emphasizes the centrality of love in our Christian living.
The apostle deals with disunity in the Church
by teaching the members the basis of true Christian love and unity. For John, love and unity among Christians is the first and most important witness for believers to bear.

In today’s Gospel passage, taken from Jesus’
high-priestly prayer, Jesus prays in particular,
for those disciples who are sharing the meal with him. The core of Jesus’ message is love, a love that is to be manifested not only in nice-sounding words but, more convincingly, in the genuine acts of love that will bind his disciples together into one community. The world cannot be evangelized by competing Churches, and that is why Jesus prayed that his disciples might be as fully one as he and the Father are one.

LIFE MESSAGE

We need to understand, appreciate, cooperate and pray: The denominations are a reality. There is no use in our blaming each other for the historical events which caused these divisions in Christ’s Body. What we can do is to learn
