OPENING HYMN

PNCC # 231 The Churches One Foundation

ENTRANCE HYMN (Sirach 35:12-13)

C. For He is a God of justice, Who knows no favorites.

R. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet He hears the cry of the oppressed.

C. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

FIRST READING

SIR 35:12-14, 16-18

A reading from the Book of Sirach.

The LORD is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay. The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.

Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The LORD confronts the evildoers,
to destroy remembrance of them from the earth.

When the just cry out, the Lord hears them,
and from all their distress he rescues them.

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The LORD is close to the brokenhearted;
and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.
The LORD redeems the lives of his servants;
no one incurs guilt who takes refuge in him.

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

SECOND READING

2 TM 4:6-8, 16-18

A reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy.

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have

URGENT HELP NEEDED!

One of the members of the PNCC, Ewelina (Mendelewski) Filyushchenko, daughter of Fr. Chris Mendelewski, pastor in Davis, FL is in need of our prayers. Ewelina got sick 6 years ago. Her brain tumor had been removed, and after chemo, she was able to even work again in the hospital. She is a dedicated nurse, mother of two. Ewelina is a member of St. Valentine's PNCC, Phila, and used to be a Vice-Chairman of the Parish Committee.

Now her cancer is back and Ewelina needs also the financial support. Therefore, the Holy Family Parish Committee humbly asks all our Parishioners and friends for donations for Ewelina. Let's help to save her life.

On next Sunday, November 1 and on the following November 9, there will be a second collection basket. Checks can be made to the Holy Family PNCC with memo "Ewelina". In case you are unable to attend the church on these days, please mail your check to the parish office. Write "EWELINA" on the envelope. Thank you for your generosity!

kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them!

But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen. The Word of the Lord.

ALLELUIA

2 COR 5:19

God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, and entrusting to us the message of salvation.

GOSPEL

LK 18:9-14

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke.

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.

The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity -- greedy, dishonest, adulterous -- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The Gospel of the Lord.

FAITH SHARING

The main theme of today's Gospel is that true humility and repentance for our sins must be the hallmark of our prayers.

In the first reading, the writer declares "the prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds to reach the unseen throne of God." Such prayers are heard because they come from the hearts of people who know how much they need God. Although God has no favorites and answers the prayers of all, the oppressed, the orphans, the widows, and those who can least help themselves are His special concern. The best prayer is humble and selfless service.

In the second reading, Paul humbly acknowledges his work as accomplished by the grace of God, and he thanks God for enabling him to fight a good battle, to run a good race, while keeping his Faith intact and proclaiming it.

In today's Gospel Jesus reminds us that God hears the prayers of one who approaches Him in humility with a repentant heart. God did not hear the prayer of this Pharisee because he exalted himself. The tax collector's prayer was heard because he humbled himself, acknowledging his sins and requesting God's mercy.

LIFE MESSAGE

We become the proud Pharisee when we brag about our achievements, giving no credit to God or those who help us, when we seek praise and recognition from others for our accomplishments, and when we degrade others with insensitive comments, hurting their feelings.

Let us include all the necessary ingredients in our prayers. Our personal prayers must include our request for pardon and forgiveness for our sins, our thanksgiving for the numerous blessings we receive daily from God, our praise and worship, the acknowledgement of our weakness and total dependence on Him, and finally, the presentation of our needs and petitions, asking that they be granted only to the extent that they are in accord with His Holy Will. Let us pray every day: "Be merciful to me, a sinner."
