“No man is an island...” How true this is for those who follow Christ: each of us has responsibilities towards each other, based on our “debt of mutual love”. When we see wickedness and wrongdoing, then because of our privileged position of following the Lord Jesus, we have a duty to speak out. This will not always be easy - remember the

St. Barnabas:
Generosity and Fortitude

As we prepare to celebrate the solemnity of Brotherly Love and continue to pray for healing, health and love for our nation and the world; this month on our discipleship journey we focus on St. Barnabas.

Scriptures for Reflection: Acts 4:32-37, 9:22-27, 14:8-20, 15:1-29

Questions for Reflection:

Barnabas was called "son of encouragement" by the Apostles. In what ways can you follow his example and encourage others this month on their own journeys as disciples of Jesus?

Name a few important “discipleship qualities” that St. Barnabas demonstrates?

Which one would you personally like to better emulate?

How can you begin to practically do so in your daily life?

How can you, as a disciple, help others take their relationship with our Lord more seriously?
