The Word This Week

The Eucharist “the Body and Blood of Christ” is a mystery with so many layers and a depth that takes more than a lifetime to penetrate. It is not just a thing that we receive, however reverently, it is a person, a relationship, a belonging, and a transformation that we consume, that becomes part of us: Receive what you are the Body of Christ. The readings invite us to reflect on how our celebration of the Eucharist brings Christ’s words to our reality: “who eats my flesh and drink my blood lives in me, and I live in him.” The people of the Old Testament had God living in their midst, walking with them on their journey, feeding and nourishing them with the gift of manna from heaven. Jesus walks with us, not looking on from afar, journeying in communion with us, living within us, as we eat and drink the gifts he extends from the Last Supper. And as Saint Paul reminds us, our communion with the One Christ is also a communion with each other. God lives in us as the Church, as we become His Body.
